

Cycling Friendly funding allocated in 2020/2021

A combined total of £1,795,136 has been awarded to 173 organisations across Scotland to improve facilities and support increased cycling and active travel. Through the Cycling Friendly programme, 148 employers, community groups, campuses and schools will benefit from funding totalling £1,464,134, with a further £234,622 awarded to 13 registered social housing providers. An additional £96,380 was awarded through the Cycling Friendly NHS Worker Fund to enable staff at eight health boards access bikes and support during lockdown.

More than 343,000 people will be able to benefit from the funding, made possible through the Scottish Government's active travel budget.
